

Derince Girl Anatolian Imam Hatip High School School Magazine

ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

- Derince Anatolian Imam Hatip High School for Girls was opened to education as Izmit Imam Hatip High School Girls' Branch within the body of Derince Imam Hatip High School in 1992/1993 academic year.
- With 25 branches and 1150 students in December 1995 while continuing education and training, Turkey has become detached with 72 branches across the Imam-Hatip High School.

- In 1996, the School Construction, Sustenance and Protection Association started the construction of the new building on a 15,872 square meter plot, which is the voluntary donations of citizens allocated by Derince Municipality.
- Due to the damage to the old building in the 17 August Marmara Earthquake, it moved to a new building whose construction has not been completed yet.
- Since the 2008-2009 academic year, our school has opened a male boarding house under the Ministry of National Education.
- The capacity of the hostel is 90 people and 40 students benefited from the hostel in the 2008-2009 academic year.
- In the second semester of the 2016-2017 academic year, Derince Imam Hatip High School was divided into two as female and male imam hatip and Derince Girls Anatolian Imam Hatip High School moved to its current building, which was built in Derince Ibni Sina District, and became an independent school with the name of Derince Girls Anatolian Imam Hatip High School.
- It serves with a total of 353 students and 32 staff in the 2018-2019 academic year.

23 APRIL NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY AND CHILDREN'S DAY

National Sovereignty and Children's Day

23 April 1920 is the date when the First Grand National Assembly, representing the will of the Turkish nation, was opened and declared the sovereignty of the Turkish people. Atatürk decided to celebrate 'April 23' as a holiday on April 23, 1924. Five years after this date, on April 23,

1929, Atatürk gifted this holiday to children and April 23 was first celebrated as Children's Day in 1929. In 1979, with the participation of six countries for the first time, this national holiday, which we carried to the international dimension, is attended by the children of foreign countries, who are the guests of Turkish children, who come from more than 40 countries on average every year. holiday gifts to children who festivals in the world and this is the first and only country in the whole world, sharing with Turkey ...

Occupying the most important place in the hearts of the Turkish nation as the unshakable expression of its independence, April 23 National Sovereignty and Children's Day is celebrated every year in our country and abroad representations, all our institutions, schools and every home, and represents the united expression of our national unity.

In the thought of the great leader Atatürk, children are the future of the nation. As an expression of his unwavering trust and great love for them, he gifted our national holiday, April 23rd, to children. 23rd April is an important occasion in order to learn the proud pages of our history by new generations and to raise the new Republican guards to whom we will entrust the continuation of the Turkish State with this awareness.
